

I am against lessening the strength of the NJ Do Not Call law. I value both my privacy and my personal time with my family. I should be able to decide if telemarketers can or cannot intrude upon my privacy and annoy me with unwanted solicitations for items I do not want or need.